You’re Invited!

You are invited to participate in a wonderful day of golf at the CCRI Fall Classic on Monday, September 20. For those who have participated in prior years, the experience at Warwick Country Club is memorable: panoramic views of Narragansett Bay while playing the challenging Donald Ross-designed golf course, excellent food and refreshments, and high quality prizes and golfer gifts.

Thanks to sponsors, players, donors and volunteers, last year’s event raised nearly $30,000 to help defray the expenses of college for students who continue to be challenged by the difficult economy. Your participation is vital to ensuring a college degree to hundreds of Rhode Islanders.

The Fall Classic brochure describes the various levels of support. I hope that you will consider one of the key sponsorship levels that provide tremendous value for your investment. Also keep in mind that a portion of your investment is tax deductible.

Over the next few days, tournament representatives will be in touch with you to determine your level of support.

Sincerely,

Ray Di Pasquale
President
