

Answers for Exercise 5: Thesis Statements

By Dr. Karen Petit

Analyze the following groups of sentences. Then on the blank lines, write TS for a good thesis statement, A for an announcement, T for a title, N for a sentence that is too narrow, and G for a sentence that is too general. Each kind of sentence (TS, A, T, N, and G) appears only once in each activity.

Activity A

- a) N Mary has been my best friend for ten years.
- b) A I am going to tell you about my three best friends: Joe, Mary, and Jane.
- c) TS Mary is a helpful, honest friend with a great personality.
- d) T Mary as a Friend
- e) G My ten best friends are helpful, have great personalities, and are trustworthy.

Activity B

- a) T Animals in Pet Stores
- b) TS Animals in stores are placed in cages, have to interact with strangers, and feel insecure.
- c) G All of the animals in our world are so wonderful!!!!!!
- d) N Joe and Janet Smith have owned a poodle for more than ten years.
- e) A This essay is going to tell a story about animals in pet stores.

Activity C

- a) TS Clothing should be organized according to the season, the colors, or the purposes.
- b) N I hate the small size of my closet.
- c) T Organization in a Closet
- d) G If you look into people's closets, you will see many different items.
- e) A My closet will be described in this paper.