ABOUT CCRI/FACILITIES

ABOUT CCRI

The Community College of Rhode Island opened its doors in 1964 with 325 students in a temporary space on Promenade Street in Providence as Rhode Island Junior College. Today, with four campuses throughout the state, CCRI enrolls an average of more than 14,000 credit students each semester, making it the largest comprehensive community college in New England. Forty percent of its students identify themselves as part of a minority group, many of whom are the first in their families to attend college.

Accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, CCRI offers more than 100 degree and certificate programs in the arts, business, computer studies, engineering, health sciences, human services, liberal arts and science departments taught by faculty who are experts in their field. Each year, Rhode Islanders fill more than 40,000 seats in our professional development, skill enhancement, job retraining and noncredit personal enrichment courses offered by CCRI's Center for Workforce and Community Education.

CCRI students are active participants in campus life and in the community. The college offers a varsity athletic program with sports and a diverse selection of student clubs and organizations, including student government. Annually, students, faculty and staff volunteer for a variety of Rhode Island nonprofit organizations, making life better for those less fortunate.

Since its inception, CCRI has graduated more than 68,000 students, with 95 percent of them living and working in Rhode Island. The college is the No. 1 provider of nurses and other health care workers in the state. Annually, more than 1,000 CCRI students transfer to Rhode Island College and the University of Rhode Island to continue their education.

CCRI's tuition is the most affordable in Rhode Island. A full-time student pays about half, or less, of tuition and fees charged at any other college in the state. According to a recent survey given to exiting students, when graduates were asked, "Would you recommend CCRI to a friend or family member?" nearly 99 percent said yes. By preparing students for continued education or to enter the state's work force, the Community College of Rhode Island provides its students with the opportunity to change their lives and achieve their dreams.

CCRI ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Knight Campus 400 East Ave., Warwick

The CCRI Knight Campus is home to the Vincent A. Cullen Field House with four basketball courts, four tennis courts, three volleyball courts and a fully-equipped weight room. The men's and women's basketball teams play their home games on the center wood court. Athletic Department administration, coaches and staff have offices at this location.

The CCRI baseball team plays its home games at Harold "Whitey" Fell Field, named in honor of the college's former head baseball coach.

The Knight Campus has two additional outdoor fields for team practice and recreational use.

Flanagan Campus 1762 Louisquisset Pike, Lincoln

The CCRI Flanagan Campus has a field house with four basketball courts, four tennis courts, four volleyball courts, a six-lane swimming pool, an indoor track, a modern dance studio and a fully-equipped weight room. The women's volleyball team plays its home matches in the Flanagan Campus Field House. Athletic Department administration, coaches and staff have offices at this location.

The Flanagan Campus has several outdoor fields for team practice and competition as well as recreational use. The cross country team and the men's and women's soccer teams host their home meets and matches at this site.

Additional sites

Some CCRI teams play their home games at nearby off-campus locations. The softball team plays its home games at Winslow Park Field in Warwick and the golf team competes and practices at Cranston Country Club. The coed tennis team and the indoor and outdoor track teams travel to their opponent's site or a neutral site for matches.

MISSION OF THE CCRI ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

The Community College of Rhode Island Department of Athletics, Physical Education and Recreation, an integral part of the curriculum, is dedicated to each physical education student and student-athlete. CCRI provides a high quality, nationally acclaimed and accredited program that promotes academic and athletic excellence. The college excels in sportsmanship, team play and competitive spirit while providing a strong academic foundation and support program.

ACADEMICS

CCRI'S STUDENT-ATHLETE ACADEMIC SUPPORT PROGRAM (SAASP)

The Student-Athlete Academic Support Program at the Community College of Rhode Island provides a support system for academic success in college. This mandatory program prepares student-athletes for transfer to four-year institutions where they can continue their education and athletic careers.

During the first semester of their freshman year, student-athletes are required to complete academic placement tests in reading, writing and mathematics and enroll in a one-credit CCRI student success course. The program requires student-athletes to attend two, one-hour study sessions each week during the semester, including the off-season, at the college's academic success centers. The Department of Athletics compliance officer schedules session times for each student-athlete and monitors their progress every five weeks during the semester. The program also provides daily academic advising, counseling and tutorials as well as transfer counseling.

Prospective student-athletes are encouraged to visit staff, coaches and advisors at CCRI's Warwick and Lincoln campuses to learn more about the program and the college's varsity teams. Call the Department of Athletics at 401-825-2114 for an appointment.

STUDENT-ATHLETES ACHIEVE ACADEMIC SUCCESS IN 2018-19

Eight CCRI student-athletes and one alumnus (pictured below) were honored for their academic achievements in the 2018-19 academic year at the 2019 Scholar-Athlete Awards Reception hosted by Speaker Nicholas A. Mattiello and the Rhode Island House of Representatives at the Rhode Island State House in May.

These awards are given annually to exceptional student-athletes who are leaders on and off the field and have demonstrated success in academics and athletics. Among the honorees were softball and soccer standout Samantha Muller, who also earned CCRI's Distinguished Female Athlete Award, and basketball star David Cabeceiras, who earned the college's Charlie Wilkes Scholarship Award.

A number of student-athletes will be transferring to four-year institutions like Rhode Island College, University of Rhode Island, Tusculum University, Bryant University, St. Anselm College, Virginia State University, Elms College, Albertus Magnus College, Southern Connecticut State University and Keene State University.

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Zack Odsen

received an athletic scholarship to Tusculum University Greeneville, TN, to play baseball.

Sam Muller

transferred to Division-II Southern Connecticut State University in New Haven, CT, to play softball.

ATHLETICS AT CCRI

AN OVERVIEW OF CCRI ATHLETICS PAST AND PRESENT

The Community College of Rhode Island is home to one of the Ocean State's finest and most successful intercollegiate athletic programs. Since its inception in 1965, the CCRI program has long been considered a front-runner in New England community college and junior college athletic circles.

The basketball, baseball, tennis, volleyball, cross country, golf and soccer teams have all been nationally ranked. The 2002 women's soccer team captured the school's first national championship, while a number of other squads, including men's basketball and women's soccer, were national runners-up. With nearly 5,500 victories, 222 All-Americans, 127 Region XXI championships and 828 All-Region selections, CCRI leads the way among all New England community colleges.

Great coaching has been the key to CCRI's success. From the athletic department's humble beginnings in 1965, the school has always featured legendary coaches. From Hall of Fame athletic director and men's basketball coach Vin Cullen to baseball coaches Ken Hopkins, Whitey Fell and Art Pontarelli, tennis coach Ray Carr and volleyball coach Gail Davis, the tradition of great coaches and top-flight teaching has extended through the years and continues through the present day.

The college holds membership in the National Junior College Athletic Association and is an associate member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

CCRI fields intercollegiate men's teams in baseball, basketball, soccer, cross country, indoor and outdoor track and golf and intercollegiate women's teams in volleyball, basketball, cross country, indoor and outdoor track, soccer and softball. In addition to our intercollegiate sports CCRI offers four sports at the club level: men's volleyball, swimming, women's beach volleyball and eSports.

The Community College of Rhode Island has proven to be a steppingstone for many student athletes who have moved on to complete their academic and athletic careers at four-year colleges and universities throughout the nation.

MEN'S SOCCER

Head Coach Gabe Toro

401-333-7363 • gtoro@ccri.edu

The CCRI men's soccer team is an NJCAA Division I program and competes in Region XXI, one of the most competitive regions in the country. Since the program started in 1973, men's soccer has won three NJCAA Region XXI championships and amassed an overall record of 424-285-52. The goal in 2019 is to maintain consistency for the entire season. Last year, the Knights split their first four games, but struggled in October. With an emphasis on finishing stronger this year, the Knights could have a shot at playing for the Region XXI title. Home games are played at the Flanagan Campus in Lincoln.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Head Coach Jim McGirr

401-333-7391 • hjmcgirr@ccri.edu

The CCRI women's soccer team is making strides under third-year coach Jim McGirr, who hopes to lead the Knights back to the NJCAA Division I National Championship for the first time since 2009. The program launched in 1994 and has since amassed a record of 300-105-16, including 17 Region XXI championships and a National Championship in 2002. Women's soccer program has also produced a number of All-Americans, All-District and All-Region players. In addition to recognition in their sport, team members are recognized for their academic success more frequently than any other team on campus. Home games are played at the Flanagan Campus in Lincoln.

CROSS COUNTRY

Head Coach Gregg Cornell
401-333-7322 • gcornell@ccri.edu

The men's and women's cross country teams are among CCRI's most consistent, top-achieving athletic programs. This year, the program returns to Division III following a long transition to D-I, led by 2011 National Champion and CCRI record-setter Bobby Allen. The standout runner set a D-III record in 2011 at Holyoke Community College with a time of 25 minutes, 23.46 seconds and a year later finished fifth at the D-I National Championships to become CCRI's first D-I First Team Cross Country All-American. The men's team has won six NJCAA Region XXI titles while several men's and women's runners have taken home NJCAA All-American, All-Region and All-Northeast honors. CCRI hosted the NJCAA Division III Cross Country National Championships in 2004 and 2008 at the Flanagan Campus in Lincoln, where the team competes for home meets.

VOLLEYBALL

Head Coach Patrick Chin
401-333-7318 • pchin1@ccri.edu

Second-year head coach Pat Chin hopes to lead the Knights back to the NJCAA Division II Volleyball National Championship Tournament for the first time since 2016. Last year, Chin led CCRI to 11 wins in a rebuilding year, laying the foundation to rejuvenate a program that boasts 20 NJCAA Region XXI titles, more than any other program at the college. Since 1976, the Knights are 729-361 in volleyball with several NJCAA All-American, All-Region and All-District players throughout their history. Volleyball offers its players the opportunity to play against some of the top-rated programs in the nation, among them New Hampshire, Illinois and Maryland. The Lady Knights play their home games at the Flanagan Campus Field House in Lincoln.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Head Coach Rick Harris

401-825-2120 • rjharris@ccri.edu

The Knights' rich tradition in men's basketball continued last season with an overall record of 28-4, which included a No. 5 ranking in the year-end NJCAA Division III poll. Throughout its history, the men's basketball program has excelled under longtime head coach Rick Harris. Since its inception in 1965, men's basketball is 1,035-475 overall with 18 Region XXI championships. Several All-American and All-Regional players have transferred to D-I, D-II and D-III schools from CCRI. In 2012, the Knights enjoyed their best season, finishing 31-5 as NJCAA D-II National Championship runner-ups. This will be their second season in D-III, allowing them to rekindle many of the Region XXI rivalries they developed through the years. The Knights play their home games at the Vincent A. Cullen Field House at the Knight Campus in Warwick.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Head Coach Doug Haynes

401-825-1131 • rdhaynes@ccri.edu

A tremendous two-sport athlete during his era at CCRI, head coach Doug Haynes is back for his second season with the women's basketball team after leading the Knights to 12 wins. CCRI is expected to improve again in 2019-20 after Haynes' team closed out last season with wins in five of its final eight regular-season games, a significant leap with a new coach at the helm. Overall, the Knights are 543-414 since 1977-78 and have won 11 NJCAA Region XXI titles in addition to seven trips to the NJCAA National Tournament, including four Elite Eight appearances. Haynes hopes to move the team closer to its first D-II Tournament appearance since the 2012-13 season. The Knights play their home games at the Vincent A. Cullen Field House at the Knight Campus in Warwick.

INDOOR AND OUTDOOR TRACK & FIELD

Head Coach Gregg Cornell
401-333-7322 • gcornell@ccri.edu

CCRI's men's and women's indoor and outdoor track teams participate in meets against four-year colleges throughout the northeast. Team members benefit from a high level of competition as they prepare for the NJCAA Northeast District Championships and Nationals. CCRI recently added another All-American to its ranks as Allison Lenox earned First Team All-American honors in the triple jump at the 2017 Nationals by winning the event with a leap of 10.21 meters, the first to earn that honor since Bobby Allen. In 2012, Allen won the 1,500- and 3,000-meter races and the mile run at the Nationals and also repeated in the 3,000 and the mile a year later, becoming CCRI's first back-to-back national champion in those events. Also in 2013, Allen took third in the 1,500 to earn his ninth All-American honor, the most by any CCRI runner. Head coach Gregg Cornell won NCAA Coach of the Year honors in 2012. The teams practice on both the Knight Campus in Warwick and Flanagan Campus in Lincoln.

CLUB VOLLEYBALL

Head Coach Anne-Marie Balboni
401-333-7315 • ajbalboni@ccri.edu

With men's volleyball not offered as an NJCAA sport at CCRI, former women's assistant coach Anne-Marie Balboni has turned the club program into one of the best in the northeast in just six seasons. In 2016, the Knights finished 25th in the Silver Division at the Division II National Collegiate Volleyball Federation National Championships in Kansas City and have appeared in the tournament five times in six seasons. The program continues to grow under Balboni's leadership.

BASEBALL

Head Coach Kevin Rix

401-825-2107 • kcrix@ccri.edu

The Knights hope to improve again in 2020 under third-year coach Kevin Rix, who guided the program to 27 wins last year, highlighted by the college's first-ever trip to the NJCAA Division III World Series. The success of CCRI's baseball program through the years has drawn Major League Baseball scouts from all areas to Whitey Fell Field at the Knight Campus in Warwick. The program is consistently ranked among the best in the nation at the Division II NJCAA level with 11 Region XXI titles in its history and has produced several successful major-league players, among them Rheal Cormier, Allen Levrault, Brad Hertzler and Tom Gavitt. Overall, the program is 1,151-485-3. Last year's 27-win season included Anthony Ramos and Ben Sears earning All-American honors in addition to nine players qualifying for the All-Region XXI team. The Knights surged following an early-season slump in Florida, winning 24 of their final 29 games to earn a spot at the World Series in Tennessee. Each year, the Knights play a challenging schedule that includes fall games against collegiate competition and preseason games against colleges in Florida and North Carolina.

SOFTBALL

Head Coach Kim Warrington

401-825-1244 • klwarrington@ccri.edu

The Knights played another tough schedule in 2019, but finished with 11 wins despite falling short of a trip to the postseason. Since the program's inception in 1980, softball has amassed a record of 443-390 with 12 Region XXI victories. The Knights play a challenging schedule each year, beginning with Spring Training games against top-tier colleges in Florida before returning home to take on the best of the north-east. This year, the Knights hope to make significant strides and perhaps earn their first district championship under fourth-year coach Kim Warrington, who brings a wealth of knowledge from her time at CCRI as a player and assistant coach. Home games are played at Winslow Field in Warwick, just a mile from the CCRI Knight Campus.

CLUB SWIMMING

Head Coach Bob Bouchard
rkbouchard@ccri.edu

For the first time since 2002, swimming returned to the club level at CCRI in 2019 and enjoyed remarkable success in its first year back on campus. The season began at Harvard University in the New England Masters Swim Championships, where the Knights combined to break 16 school records. Josh Hernandez and Ryan Theriault each set three individual records and two relay records on the men's side to account for half of the new records. Kelsey Treanor and Julianna Wright led the women with Treanor setting five individual records that day while Wright broke three existing records. Coach Bob Bouchard has similar goals this season with a team poised to set new records while continuing to develop the college's existing talent.

Anthony Ramos Baseball

Anthony Ramos (Cranston, RI) had a stellar inaugural season for the Knights in centerfield and earned a spot on the NJCAA Division III Baseball All-American Second Team. Ramos played 38 games in 2019 and led the Knights with a .416 batting average, which ranked him 50th in the nation. Providing non-stop offense from the top of the order, Ramos boasted an impressive .549 on-base percentage – 14th in the nation – and finished the season with 31 steals (6th in D-III) and a team-high 83 runs scored. Defensively, Ramos covered every blade of grass in centerfield and committed one error all season, finishing with a stellar .983 fielding percentage. In addition to D-III All-American honors, Ramos earned a Region XXI Rawlings Gold Glove Award and Region XXI DIII All-Region First Team Award. He will return in 2020 for his sophomore season.

Ben Sears

Baseball

Pitcher Ben Sears (East providence,RI) enjoyed a prolific first year for the Knights and earned NJCAA Division III Baseball All-American Third Team Honors. Sears dominated, earning eight wins in 11 appearances, which ranked 13th in the nation. Sears led the team with 67 2/3 innings pitched and struck out 99 batters, sixth best in D-III, and consistently kept batters off balance by effectively mixing his fastball with his off-speed pitches, averaging 13.2 strikeouts per nine innings, good enough for eighth in the nation. Sears finished the season with a 2.93 ERA and also earned Region XXI DIII All-Region First Team honors. The talented flamethrower will continue his college career in 2020 with Division I University of Houston, competing in the American Athletic Conference.

Kat Raposo

Women's basketball

Co-Captain Kat Raposo (Warwick, RI), a two-sport start in both soccer and basketball, was named an NJCAA Division II Third Team All-American for the first time in her career following a successful sophomore season in softball. Raposo led the Knights in scoring (17.2 points per game) and steals (2.8) while shooting 46 percent from the field and averaging an additional 3.0 assists per game. As a sophomore, Raposo scored in double-figures in 21 of the 25 games she played, which included nine games scoring 20 or more points and two in which she surpassed the 30-point plateau. She also finished with two double-doubles, including a 28-point, 10-rebound performance against Gateway Community College in November and a 19/13 stat line against UConn-Avery Point in December. Raposo saved her best for the postseason after two starters went down due to injury. In the Region XV/XXI Tournament semifinals, she finished with a career-high 32 points in a win over Orange County Community College and then poured in 30 points with six rebounds, six assists and a pair of steals in the championship victory over Sullivan County.
