

RHODE ISLAND

NON-OPIOID PAIN TREATMENT SYMPOSIUM

1 to 4 p.m. • Sunday, Oct. 28, 2018
CCRI Knight Campus, Warwick

- 1 p.m. Welcome: Regina M. Cobb, MSW, LMT, CMLD
- 1:10 p.m. Remarks: Moderator James McDonald, MD, MPH
Chief administrative officer, Board of Medical Licensure and Discipline, Rhode Island Department of Health
- 1:15 p.m. Panel One: RI's Opioid Crisis & Understanding the Problem of Pain
- Tom Coderre
*Senior advisor to the governor and co-chair,
Overdose Prevention and Intervention Task Force*
 - Linda E. Hurley, MA, CAGS, LCDCS
President and CEO, CODAC Behavioral Health
 - Lt. Cmdr. Kasim J. Yarn
Director of Veterans Affairs
 - Peter Neronha, JD
Candidate for attorney general
 - Joe Lindbeck, JD
Assistant attorney general
- 2:15 p.m. Q&A session
- 2:25 p.m. Summary of first panel discussion

PROGRAM

2:35 p.m. Panel Two: Non-Opioid Pain Treatment Approaches

- Victoria Moutahir, MS, CMLD
Massage therapist
- Charlotte King, DAOM
Acupuncturist
- Chrysanthi Kazantzis, MS, ND
Naturopathic doctor
- Jason Harvey, MSPT
Physical therapist
- Nancy Dooley, Ph.D., OTR/L
Occupational therapist
- Alan Post, DC
Chiropractor
- Ellen Flynn, MD
Psychiatrist, Brown University Mindfulness Center

3:35 p.m. Q&A session

3:45 p.m. Summary of second panel discussion

3:55 p.m. Closing remarks by U.S. Rep. James R. Langevin
2nd Congressional District

This symposium is supported by funding from the Rhode Island Executive Office of Health and Human Services Healthcare Workforce Transformation Program.