

NEASC 2014

Changing Lives
Achieving Dreams

February 23, 2012

Today's Agenda

- Welcome Remarks
- DOT Voting Feedback
- Designated Leaders for Key Priorities
- Project management frameworks
- CCRI Professional Development Day- NEASC Accreditation: *Remove the Mystique
- Data First Forms
- Spring 2012 NEASC Schedule
- Q & A

“DOT” Voting

- Results of voting presented to President’s council January 18, 2012
- NEASC Self Study Key Priorities document illustrates all voting results for yellow and green dots...take a moment to review results.
- A few priorities had no voting results but were not removed from the key priorities’ listing
- Questions?

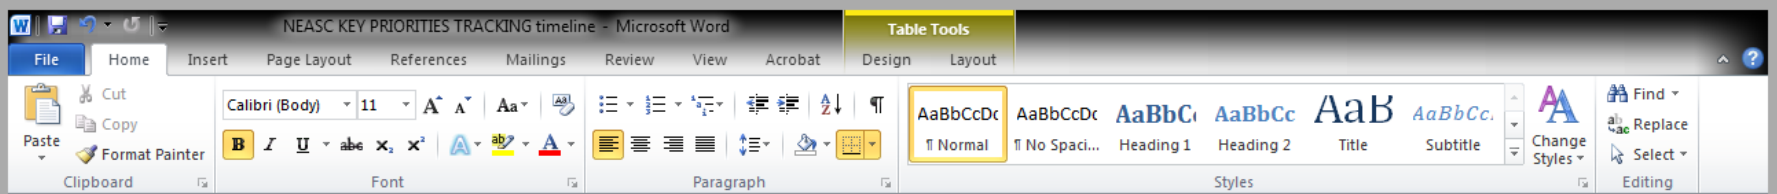

Key Priorities Designated Leaders

- Presented to President February 10, 2012
- Review Designated Leaders Listing
- Role of Designated Leader

Instructional Session

Timeline for Achieving Priorities

- ❖ A framework for managing each Standards' Goals for Improvement
- ❖ Today you will work with a team (back page of handout) to develop a timeline for an assigned priority for each semester listed on the framework sheet.
- ❖ Please note : The number of the priority (1,2 or 3) you will be working on is listed on the assignment sheet .
- ❖ Teams will report out on tasks listed for Spring 2012.

Office of Academic Affairs

2014 NEASC Standards' Goals for Improvement

Timeline for Achieving Priorities

Standard # 1 Mission and Purpose

List Goal #1: Increase visibility and knowledge of CCRI Mission Statement

% of Completion

100%	75%	50%	25%
				Spring 2012 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Create list of current listings of Mission Statement ❖ Identify additional locations for revised Mission Statement ❖ Create focus group to generate ideas on how to increase knowledge and use of Mission Statement
				Fall 2012 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Ensure that Mission Statement is placed in additional locations previously identified ❖ Create PR campaign to remind College Community and multiple stakeholders of CCRI's Mission Statement
				Spring 2013 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖

Timeline for Achieving Priorities Sample

(including completion percentages) :
Due April 23, 2012

NEASC KEY PRIORITIES TRACKING timeline - Microsoft Word

NEASC Self Study Key Priorities 2012

Office of Academic Affairs
 2014 NEASC Standards' Goals for Improvement
Timeline for Achieving Priorities

Standard # 1 Mission and Purpose

List Goal #1: Increase visibility and knowledge of CCRI Mission Statement

% of Completion
100%	75%	50%	25%
X
	X
		X

Spring 2012

- ❖ Create list of current listings of Mission Statement
- ❖ Identify additional locations for revised Mission Statement
- ❖ Create focus group to generate ideas on how to increase knowledge and use of Mission Statement

Fall 2012

- ❖ Ensure that Mission Statement is placed in additional locations previously identified
- ❖ Create PR campaign to remind College Community and multiple stakeholders of CCRI's Mission Statement

Spring 2013

- ❖

Community College of Rhode Island

Page: 1 of 2 Words: 194 100%

CCRI Professional Development Day

March 30, 2012

NEASC

Accreditation:

Remove the Mystique

- Purpose: To improve faculty and staff's familiarity and knowledge with regard to CCRI's 2014 NEASC accreditation visit and NEASC Standards.
- 3 Sessions – 30 participants per session
- Participants will answer trivia questions pertaining to NEASC Standards, CCRI, and accreditation to earn raffle tickets for prizes.

NEASC – Spring 2012

Date

Action Item

- February 22 – Trivia questions & answers for PDD due
- February 23 – NEASC Co Chairs' meeting
- March 1 – List of Materials needed & staffers DUE
- March 2 – Date by which our office will contact teams co chairs with revisions for DATA FIRST forms
- March 7 – Timeline for Achieving Priorities - DUE -with all semesters' goals filled in Revisions on DATA FIRST forms – DUE
March 30 – NEASC Accreditation- Removing the Mystique
- April 23 – Timeline for Achieving Priorities - with the completion filled in - DUE
- April 26-NEASC Co chairs' meeting to share “priorities met” for Spring 2012
- May 16 – Completion results for Timeline for Achieving Priorities to be presented to President's Council

Thank you for all of your hard work &
dedication

CCRI Office of Academic Affairs
