Student Citizenship:

- I am a US Citizen / eligible noncitizen (e.g., Permanent Resident): STOP! You must complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) at fafsa.ed.gov instead!
- I am not a citizen nor a noncitizen eligible for federal financial aid: Continue with this application.

Notes

- Students who may be eligible for federal student aid should fill out a FAFSA at <https://fafsa.ed.gov>. The results of the FAFSA will be used to determine eligibility for federal, state, and institutional aid.

Rhode Island state and institutional aid may be granted only to students who would be otherwise eligible for financial aid if not for their undocumented status. All students must show financial need and be enrolled in a Title IV aid-eligible program to receive institutional aid.

Part One: Affidavit of Eligibility

ALL student applicants must complete this section. These are the conditions under which students may apply for Rhode Island state and institutional financial aid for the 2024-2025 school year.

Note that students will have to submit a separate affidavit to their institution, along with required documents as proof, to demonstrate their eligibility for in-state tuition and fees.

I, the undersigned under oath, depose and say as follows:

Check the statements below if you are a student applying for fall 2024 aid.

- I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein, which are all true and correct; and
- I currently live in the state of Rhode Island.
- I have lived in Rhode Island for three (3) or more years, have attended an approved high school in the state of Rhode Island for three (3) or more years, and I hold an official high school diploma (or will hold at the time of my enrollment) OR that I have lived in Rhode Island for three (3) or more years and have earned a GED (senior high school equivalency diploma from the state of Rhode Island), or will have earned one by the time of my enrollment.
- I have filed an application for lawful United States of America immigration status, evidence of which I have attached hereto and incorporated herein, OR that I will file an application for lawful immigration status as soon as I become eligible to do so. I understand that my failure to file an application for lawful immigration status as soon as I become eligible to do so will result in a forfeiture of in-state tuition rates for me in the future.
- I do not, and if I am un-emancipated my parent(s) does not, hold a temporary immigration classification or other immigration status within the definition of “non-immigrant alien” as described in U.S.C §1101(a)(15).
