Course Description This course provides private music instruction on a principal instrument or in principal voice for music majors. Instruction is offered in classical music or jazz (one hour lesson per week) for students already proficient in playing an instrument or singing. Ability to read music is required. All students registered for principal applied music are required to perform in a student recital at least once per semester. Admission to any of the applied music courses is by audition only. Students are assigned to CCRI music faculty. Apply directly to the Performing arts Department for detailed audition information and dates. (Prerequisite: College freshman ability in playing an instrument or singing, as demonstrated in an audition).

Applied music fee to be paid after registration: $350

Course delivery mode: Private lesson to be arranged with the instructor

Course expectations –

Students are expected to attend weekly lessons on time, observe, respect and practice instructor's assignments and suggestions, and prepare at least 2 pieces (five, vocalists) for performance at a recital and jury.

Students are responsible for submitting the paperwork that will be requested for recitals and juries.

For each credit hour of applied music, students are expected to practice outside of class at least 3 hours to meet the minimum standards for juries.

Students are responsible for following the policies set forth in the Student Handbook (http://www.ccri.edu/advising/student_services/handbook.html) and College Catalog (<http://www.ccri.edu/catalog/>).

Student Learning Outcomes
