

Student Learning Outcomes MUSC1175 Music Therapy & Geriatrics

Define music therapy as a clinical practice

Describe the function of music and its impact on the adult mind

Describe the intellectual disabling conditions and the physical disabilities that often face the elderly population.

List the benefits that music can have on an elderly population

Create ideas and strategies for using music and movement with the elderly population, and for using music during end of