

Dr. Martine Delonay

Founder and CEO of DELONNAY HOLISTICS

Dr. Martine Delonay is a Naturopathic Doctor licensed in the states of VT and RI. She also is a foreign educated Medical Doctor who practices Integrative Family practice in Haiti. Dr. Delonay is a Director at the RIANP (Rhode Island Association of Naturopathic Physician). Her experience with both the conventional and Alternative aspect of Medicine put her in an ideal position to assist her patients and work in association with other practitioners.

She has a special interest in bringing awareness to the mind-body connection using a large panoply of modalities like nutrition, homeopathy, botanical Medicine, lifestyle counseling and others. She is driven to educate, inspire and empower those around her.

Dr. Delonay strives to work with her patients to remove barriers, empowering patients to seize opportunities and to make the life they want a reality because everyone has the potential to achieve their dreams and goals, Dr. Delonay has done a lot of work understanding the emotional roots of our physical ailments. She believes that all pathologies are related somehow to the suppression of emotions.

She is a Reiki practitioner and also a certified Hypnotist. She integrates these skills in her practice to better assist her clients. Her passion for the Art of Healing, her desire to help others and her love for Education constitute the platform of her vocation.