Additional Instructions for the CDL Road Test Examination

You will be required to provide the following at the time of your CDL road test examination:

- Valid vehicle registration for the vehicle you are testing in. (No photocopies accepted*.)
- Valid proof of insurance for the vehicle you are testing in. (No photocopies accepted*.)
- A vehicle of the class and type required for your examination that is in good, safe operating condition with all emergency equipment operational.
- A valid operator's license.
- A valid medical card.
- A valid permit with the proper class, endorsements and current expiration date required for the test vehicle. (No photocopies accepted.)
- A sponsor who has a valid CDL license equal to or of a higher class for the test vehicle. (Please note: the sponsor's license will be inspected at the time of your scheduled road test examination.)
- State inspection stickers required for Rhode Island registered vehicles over one year old. Out-of-state registered vehicles must have valid state inspection or federal inspection stickers.

Your compliance with the above requirements will allow your test to proceed smoothly. Failure to comply will result in losing your test appointment and examination fee.

At the range, please sign in inside the trailer with your sponsor. Have all your paperwork with you.

In the event that you have to reschedule or cancel your road test examination appointment, you must do so no later than three business days before your appointment or you will forfeit your examination fee.

NO loaded trucks!

When classes are canceled at CCRI because of inclement weather or other emergencies, testing at the CDL Test Range is canceled.

*(Fleet, municipal and state vehicles may provide photocopies of vehicle registration and insurance.)
